The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petitoner is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the state in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864 A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

STATE DEBT, &c.

We are obliged to the Public Treasurer for the following copy of a letter on the public debt, addressed to DR. Leach, of Johnston:

2. Bonds dated January 1st, 1866, and since, issued under Acts of Assembly, $4,955,500.

Yours truly,
KEMP P. BATTLE,
Public Treasurer.

LET THOSE who fancy that the Homestead feature, in the infamous Constitution, is worth anything, REMEMBER that the Homestead can be sold for taxes, and that the taxes will be so horribly high that they will COMPEL ITS SALE. This was the object of the Yankee speculators. They thought to deceive the people with the poor shadow of a Homestead, while they took good care so to arrange the finances of the infamous Constitution as to secure the substance for themselves!

TURNER IN CABARRUS.—A correspondent, writing us from Concord, under date of the 4th., says: "Hon. Jo. Turner spoke here, to day, to a large crowd. His speech lasted nearly three hours and was a crushing one to the mongrels. He goes hence to Stanly county, to speak on Monday."

THE INFAMOUS CONSTITUTION.

We had supposed that no reader of the new Constitution could fail to see the solid objections to that instrument, which stand out so prominently in every article of it.

There are, however, those who, on account of their extreme anxiety to see the country at peace and our national difficulties settled, are disposed to look upon any proposition with favor, which promises to effect it, but who are not as careful, as they should be, to examine into the real character of the schemes proposed by the Radicals, and who, therefore, read the new Constitution with a previous fixed determination to approve it, if possible. There are some such persons, who need information, and whose fears as to the future must be dispelled.

Congress proposes to the Southern people, that when a majority of them in each State shall determine to form a Constitution, which admits all men to the right of suffrage without regard to color or previous condition, who are citizens of the United States, are 21 years of age and have been 12 months in the State, and when its Legislature shall adopt the Howard amendment, and said Constitution has been approved by Congress, the Senators and Representatives of said State, who can take the required oath, shall be admitted into Congress.

Now, we are free to confess, if the mongrel Convention, which lately sat in our Capitol, had carefully confined itself strictly to such changes in our old Constitution as the requirements of Congress absolutely demanded, and had done no more, that, such is the anxiety of our people to end all this strife, it would have been a difficult matter to have defeated such a Constitution. Had there been no miserable Yankee squatters in that Convention, no mean and mischievous insiders and outsiders, to manipulate the matter—no bitter, violent men, who are determined to rule or ruin, controlling the Convention,—that body might have done simply what the Reconstruction Acts required and no more. But the new Constitution has no North Carolina paternity—nothing to remind our people that they are still North Carolinians, and that we are the same people we once were.

1. It is not only guarantees to the blacks suffrage and equal civil rights, but it throws down all protection to property and all encouragement to virtue and character. It opens every office in the State to every man, without such guarantees for the proper discharge of its functions, as the State ought to require, thereby giving the widest range to demagogueism, rascality and imposture.

2. No distinctions of color or character are hinted at in the Constitution. No one can learn, from the Constitution, whether there are any white people in the State or not. The Legislative, Executive and Judicial offices of the State are open alike to all, without any proper condition or qualification. The offices of Judge and Justice of the Peace are made purely political, by being elective by the people for a short term of years.

3. Not only does the Constitution aim at the obliteration of all political distinctions, but all social as well as moral distinctions. The idea of the entire equality of the different varieties of mankind, in all respects, based upon the unity of the race as to its creation, runs through the entire instrument. This is especially offensive as to the enrolling of the militia, the establishment of public schools, as to marriage, guardianship, apprenticeship, &c., because the new Constitution gives the General Assembly no discretion in these matters. Such a Constitution in the Northern States, of course, could not give the negro any controlling influence in politics, social or moral matters, because there are so few of them, that their political rights acquired by suffrage could give them no power. But those who contend for a similar state of things in the South are purblind.

4. The new Constitution fixes upon the people of the State a burden of TAXATION, which they cannot bear. It leaves the General Assembly no proper discretion in these matters, but its requisitions are imperious, which, if carried out, must subject the property of the people to public sale, to be bought up, at one-fifth or one-tenth its value, by Northern Speculators; and the new regime for county and township governments must increase the taxation of the counties to an unheard of extent.

RADICAL GAME.—When the canvass in this County commenced, the Conservative candidates proposed to the Radical candidates to meet them at the usual precincts, as heretofore, for discussion. This proposition the Radicals declined. The Sheriff of the county issued his usual notices for the speaking. After a few days had elapsed, the Radical appointments were announced in the Standard, embracing an entirely different route from the appointments arranged by the Sheriff. This arrangement proved to be entirely satisfactory to the Conservatives—the people coming out in numbers to hear them. We learn that the Radicals have not been so fortunate. At their appointments very few persons, naturally, have attended.

The Rads are now disposed to trench upon the time of the Conservative candidates, and ask them to divide time with them.—We hope the Conservatives will not permit any interference on the part of Radical speakers. They made their own selection of their mode of warfare, at the outset; let them hold to it. Conservatives should not be turned from their course at all. The Radicals know their utter inability to cope with the Conservatives in argument, and their object is simply to provoke difficulties, by which they hope to gain something. Holden, in his canvass, has not consented, in a single instance, to divide time with a Conservative. He has only allowed a limited reply in one instance, and only then under circumstances where he thought he could lose nothing. They have chosen their plan,—let them stick to it.

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE COMPELLED to go to the same schools with NEGROES! That is one of the issues.

WHAT OF THE NIGHT?

The election commences two weeks from this day. There should be, and there will be, more of hard work and active, energetic labor, compressed within that brief interval, than have ever been seen in North Carolina, within the same period of time. Never before in our history have so many eminent men been enlisted, actively enlisted, in any cause, as are now in the field, battling for the honor of their race and the vital interests of our good old State. Old men and young men,—the men who have filled positions of distinction and usefulness in the past, and the men of promise, who are just coming upon the stage of action,—have taken the stump and are pleading eloquently and industriously for the imperilled rights of the people and the cause of civilization and Anglo-Saxon liberty. All former party distinctions are merged and obliterated. Those who were wont to shiver opposing lances, in by-gone days, have shaken hands and turned their weapons against the common adversary,—the meanest and most unscrupulous foe with whom any knightly champion ever yet had to contend. The spectacle, which was witnessed in the State Convention of White Men, which assembled in this City in February, when William A. Graham and Weldon N. Edwards presided, in turn, is common throughout our borders, and no other purpose or feeling exists, among the true men of North Carolina, but a united determination to save our common Mother from the clutches of the ignorant negro hordes and vindictive and mercenary white wretches, native and imported, who are seeking to degrade and dishonor her. It is safe to say that among the Radical leaders, there is not a solitary individual, who has had prominence or respectability in the past, who is not a candidate for office, or is not manifestly hankering for one. Leaving out the negroes, their scanty ranks are composed of a few ambitious men, who have "stooped to conquer," seedy adventurers, Northern speculators and stock jobbers, puritan carpet-baggers, and a small number of native scalawags.

But what of the prospect? We are not disposed to under-estimate the difficulties in the way. We know that, with a stupid and besotted credulity, which is one of the best evidences of their unfitness, as a race, to exercise political privileges, the negroes have been duped to believe their worst enemies their best friends, and that, with occasional exceptions, they will follow like a flock of silly sheep whither they are driven by their designing and selfish masters. That may be taken for granted.

But with a majority of 35,000 white men in North Carolina,—to be largely increased by the registration which commences to-day,—there can be no doubt as to the result, unless any considerable portion of that majority fail to vote or unless the same system of fraud is to prevail here, which has been so shamelessly practiced in Arkansas. We do not believe that either will happen. Never, since 1844, have there been witnessed such indications of a popular uprising, as are to be seen all over the State. From the mountains to the sea-board, the true people are marshalling under the white banner and preparing their battalions for the battle.—Nothing, we repeat, but a sudden spirit of supineness or indifference can prevent the utter defeat of the mongrel enemies of North Carolina, and of the infamous Constitution, which they have prepared for our ruin and degradation.

Within the next fortnight, therefore, friends—WHITE MEN of North Carolina!—let there not be, for one moment, the slightest relaxation of the energy and zeal, which you have thus far exhibited. The issue is one of life or death! If you triumph over the plotters of your humiliation, the emissaries of your enemies abroad, and your meaner enemies at home, you will have vindicated your manhood and the honor of the race to which you, and your wife and children, belong,—and you may, at least, postpone, and possibly finally prevent, the infinite horrors of negro rule. If you fail, through dereliction of your own, you involve yourselves and everything you have and love in Darkness and ruin. Under the rule of negroes, and such creatures as those who are leading them against you, for the gratification of their fiendish hate or selfish greed, Tennessee will be a Paradise to North Carolina, (for we are threatened with an improvement on Brownlowism, and have to deal with even worse men than Brownlow,) and Tennessee is the scene, as you all know, of anarchy, feuds and blood!

INTIMIDATION OF VOTERS.

The late mongrel Convention, about its close, passed an ordinance fixing certain penalties upon any person who shall attempt to intimidate voters. The position taken by the white men of the State, in regard to the new Constitution, renders them by no means chargeable under this ordinance. They set no traps, employ no finesse, to mislead the poor blacks. If they choose to vote a Conservative ticket, their names are kept on record to be remembered, but if they are disposed to vote with the Radicals, it is a matter about which our white people give themselves no concern.

The only clear instances of intimidation, that we hear of, are employed by the Radicals, upon those who have been in the Leagues, and who are now determined to quit them, and upon those colored men who declare their freedom from party trammels and determination to vote as they please. The few colored voters in the State, who voted with the Conservatives in the last election, have been abused and threatened by the Radicals ever since, and the same threats are kept up.

We admonish all Conservative colored men not to be brow beaten and frightened from their duty, by these fellows. If threats or intimidation are employed, report all such instances to your friends, who stand ready to defend you. They will enforce the law in your favor against all offenders.

The SUCCESS of the white men of North Carolina, on the 21st. of April, is a CERTAINTY, if they will all VOTE, as we believe they will.

AFRICAN SLAVERY THE GREAT CIVILIZER.

For forty years, the abolitionists, or so called Republicans of the North, have lived, fattened and grown upon bitter denunciations of the slave-holders of the South, as wealthy aristocrats and oligarchs—the guilty slave drivers, treating negroes as beasts of burden, as degrading the race, rearing the blacks in ignorance, &c. All these charges, and many more, were made against Southern slave-holders. Books were written, caricatures were drawn, and every device employed, to inflame the public mind against the slave-holders of the South.

What is now the testimony of these very abolitionists and Republicans, in regard to slavery and slave-holders? Why, if they are to be believed, no instrument for the civilization of a barbarous race, has been half so effective, as African slavery has been in the Southern States.

It has tamed and civilized, and qualified for the highest functions of civil life, one of the most ignorant, debased and barbarous tribes of manhood, in the short space of two hundred years and less! Indeed, it was only until 1808 that ignorant, untamed and barbarous Africans were prohibited from being brought to the United States and sold into slavery. Only sixty years have been sufficient, under the civilizing and powerful influences of African slavery in the Southern States, to convert the barbarian into the highest type of man, according to Radical teaching!

If the Southern negro is capable of the exercise of suffrage—if he be qualified to sit on juries, to fill offices of responsibility and trust and to discharge the highest functions of civilized life,—who are entitled to the credit of it, but the Southern slave holders and the system of African slavery in the South? What has in so short a time made such rapid changes and improvements in a barbarous race, as this scheme of civilization, i. e. African slavery? We commend the subject to the careful consideration of Northern philanthropists and philosophers. What offers so strong and effective a means for the civilization of the barbarous hordes of Africa, Asia and the Islands of the sea, as the introduction of human slavery in all those regions, to be executed and carried forward by those much abused Southern slave holders, who have done so much for human civilization, in so short a period? Who can take under effective training a barbarous negro, and make him fit for a voter, an office-holder, &c., in so short a time as the late Southern slave-holder?

PHOTOGRAPH NO. 1. (BY MACAULEY.)

"Barere had no principles at all. Neither in the commerce of life, nor in books, did we ever become acquainted with any mind so unstable, so utterly destitute of tone, so incapable of independent thought and earnest preference, so ready to take impressions and so ready to lose them. He resembled those creepers which must lean on some thing, and which, as soon as their prop is removed, fall down in utter helplessness.—He could no more stand up, erect and self-supported in any cause, than the ivy can rear itself like the oak, or the wild vine shoot to heaven like the cedar of Lebanon.

Our opinion is, that Barere approached nearer than any person mentioned in history or fiction, whether man or devil, to the idea of consummate and universal depravity. In him the qualities, which are the proper objects of contempt, preserve an exquisite and absolute harmony. In almost every particular sort of wickedness he has had rivals. There have been many men as cowardly as he, some as cruel, a few as mean, and a few as impudent. There may also have been as great liars, though we never met with them or read of them. But when we put everything together, pol'roonery, baseness, effrontery, mendacity, barbarity,—the result is something which, in a novel, we should condemn as caricature, and to which, we venture to say, no parallel can be found in history. A man who gradually brings himself to inflict misery on his fellow citizens with indifference, with satisfaction, and at last with a hideous rapture, deserves to be regarded as a portent of wickedness; and such a man was Barere."

THE REGISTRARS.—In a recent order from Gen. Canby, he declares that candidates for office in the pending election may be still continued as Registrars. This will strike every one, as an entire departure from all former usage in this State. Registrars ought to be honest men, if such can be found, and should be removed, as far as possible, from all temptations to depart from the law, in the discharge of their duties.

Among the Registrars in this county, none made themselves more offensive to the people, on the late registration, than Capt. Tim Lee. He is now a candidate for the office of Sheriff, and the only act we have known him to do, which the people will sanction, is his declension to serve as a Registrar, now. The authorities have done well in releasing him from that post, but we can see no good reason for the appointment of W. W. White in his place, who is a candidate for the Legislature of Deeds. We presume there were others, who were not candidates, who were equally qualified for the position, and the same reason which led the authorities to consent to relieve Capt. Lee, ought to have prevented the appointment of Mr. White.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.—The Register, of this city, publishes, as is already generally known, what it calls a "Republican ticket," headed by the name of D. R. Goodloe, Esq. for Governor, and Gen. Cox for Lt. Governor, with a number of other Conservative names and some Republicans or Radicals.

The names of the Conservatives were all placed upon the ticket without their knowledge or consent. The object, we presume, was the same which prompted the Radicals to place some Conservative Judges on their ticket—to give it respectability. As the ticket can do neither good nor harm, we presume no one will take the trouble to decline the proffered honors.

THE VOTE upon the new Constitution will be taken the 21st., 22nd. and 23d. of April. Be sure and VOTE AGAINST IT.

WISCONSIN.—An election for two Supreme Court Judges will be held in Wisconsin today. A Radical newspaper (the Philadelphia Press) says:

"It is estimated that a change of three Republican votes in each township, or the absence from the polls of six voters, would overcome our majority of 1867."

In 1865, on the issue of negro suffrage, the vote stood in Wisconsin—for, 46,588; against, 55,591. By some sort of hocus pocus, the Supreme Court of that State reversed the popular verdict, and pronounced negro suffrage to be legal. Should the Democrats elect their judicial candidates, this infamous decision will be reversed.

WHICH IS BETTER, a system of State government, devised by Gaston, Macon, Daniel, Mordecai, and other North Carolina patriots, or a system devised by New England adventurers, based upon Yankee notions and prejudices, adapted to New England wants, and adopted by scalawags and negroes?

THE MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—At the meeting of the Ladies' Memorial Association, on yesterday, all of the former lady officers were re-elected,—a merited compliment to the zeal and efficiency with which they have discharged their patriotic duties. Committees were appointed,—one to make suitable arrangements for the annual commemorative exercises on the 10th. prox., and one to solicit contributions in further aid of the beautiful objects of the Association. The appeal of these noble ladies, when duly made, will, we trust, be promptly responded to.

"NORTH CAROLINIAN."—Our cotemporary, the Carolinian, made its re-appearance, on yesterday, under the sole editorial auspices of Maj. Hearne,—the Local department under control of our young friend, Jno. C. Syme. Our clever neighbor looks as bright and lively as ever. We wish him all good luck, as we are sure he will deserve it.

REGISTRATION.—The First Board of Registration, as heretofore announced, will re-open their books, in this city, to-day, and keep them open for five days.

The Second Board will re-open at Morrisville, for the precincts of Laws', Oak Grove, Hays', Sorrell's, Morrisville and Spikes'.

BARBECUE AT SPIKES'.—There will be a Conservative Mass Meeting at Spikes' on Monday, the 20th. inst., (the day before the election.) A free barbecue will be provided, and able speakers will be present.

CHATHAM RAILROAD.

A special meeting of the Stockholders of this Railroad Company was held in this city on Saturday, the 4th. inst.

George W. Mordecai, Esq., acted as Chairman, and Maj. W. W. Vass, Secretary.

Of the 8760 shares constituting the subscribed capital stock of the Company, there were represented in the meeting, in person and by proxy, 7317 shares.

The meeting having been duly organized, Gen. W. R. Cox, President of the Road, explained that the Stockholders had been called together to consider two ordinances enacted by the late "Constitutional Convention" in relation to the Chatham Railroad Company,—certified copies of which he laid before the meeting.

Both ordinances were read by the Secretary, and fully considered and discussed by the Stockholders. That entitled "An ordinance to amend the charter of the Chatham Railroad Company," which, on conditions, affords aid to the Company to complete the work, to the extent of $1,200,000 in State bonds, was, by formal resolution, unanimously ratified and accepted as a part of the charter of the Company.

The "ordinance in relation to the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation works" was also accepted and ratified.

Dr. W. J. Hawkins offered a resolution to raise a Committee of five, to prepare a statement of the gold value of each stockholder's subscription at the time paid, and to apportion the shares of the capital stock paid in, accordingly—discarding fractional shares, but to allow to each subscriber at least one share of stock—said Committee to report to this meeting, and that a majority of all the stock of the Company shall be necessary to ratify the report of said Committee.

The Chairman appointed on this Committee, Dr. W. J. Hawkins, W. D. Haywood, J. M. Heck, Julius A. Gray and W. W. Vass, who, after retiring, returned and reported to the meeting, in detail, the names of the Stockholders, amount paid in Confederate currency, and the gold value of same at the date of payment, and recommending that the capital stock of the Company paid in, be set at $873,600—or 8,736 shares,—to be apportioned among the Stockholders according to list as submitted.—This report was accepted, and the following resolution adopted:

Resolved, That the capital stock paid in of the Chatham Railroad Company be $873,600, and the President and Directors have prepared, at an early day, certificates of stock to be issued to the several Stockholders, in proportion to the gold value of the subscription, and in accordance with the report of the Committee of five, this day ratified by the Stockholders.

On motion of Gen. Cox, the meeting adjourned.

"BYE! BABY BUNTING."—We learn that, at the discussion at Auburn, on Saturday, where all the white men were one way,—all opposed to the infamous Constitution,—it was found absolutely impossible to get Jno. N. Bunting, (the Radical nominee for Superior Court Clerk,) who was present, to say whether he was for or against the Constitution. A Radical darkey, who was there, couldn't "stand the pressure," and indignantly announced his intention to report our J. N. to Republican Headquarters, and thus compel him "to lift the veil." Accordingly, we learn, J. N. comes out in yesterday's Standard, and "unbuzzums" himself. He says that he will go the entire Radical figure. J. N. is done for.

THE FIRE IN WADESBORO.—The loss by the late destructive fire, in Wadesboro, at a low estimate, was $50,000. We deeply sympathize with our excellent friend Darley, of the Wadesboro Argus, who was one of the principal sufferers,—having lost nearly all of his material, fixtures, &c. We trust that the friends of Mr. Darley, in that section, will show their appreciation of his past useful labors, in the most substantial manner; and we hope that the Argus may speedily be resumed. It was an efficient, earnest and able Conservative Journal.

JOHNSTON COUNTY.—The following excellent ticket has been put into the field by our friends in Johnston, viz: Senate, William H. Avera; "House of Representatives," (so-called,) Leigh R. Waddell and Jesse T. Ellington; County Clerk of Superior Court, Edward S. Parker; Register, Simeon R. Morgan; Sheriff, Jasper S. Atkinson; Coroner, Willis H. Avera; Surveyor, Chas. C. Massey; Treasurer, Saml. P. Horton; Commissioners, Saml. H. Hood, Seth Woodall, E. A. Bizzell, Henry H. Finch, Jno. W. Lee.

THE CONSERVATIVE rally in Wilmington, on Friday night, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, was a glorious affair. Col. Hall, our Candidate for Lieut. Governor, and the Hon. Thos. C. Fuller, addressed the meeting in soul-stirring and eloquent speeches.

ROWAN.—The Old North State says that the enthusiasm, which has been kindled in Salisbury, is rapidly spreading to the country. The cause is now largely in the ascendant in Rowan, and is gaining ground every day. Push on the column!

BRICK POMEROY says that he once knew a candidate (Radical) for Judge, in Wisconsin, who could beat Cannon, (the Mongrel candidate for Judge in the 12th. District,) at spelling, "all hollow." Cannon spells January with a G. Brick's Judge spelt God with a little j.

COL. CANTWELL, late C. S. A., of Oxford, says that he will support the infamous Constitution. Col. Cantwell will be the only sufferer by such an announcement.

MASS MEETING in Newbern, on Thursday, the 16th. of April. An immense crowd is expected.

Butler's speech makes 23,000 words. In fact it is mostly words. It has been offered to us in full and cordially declined. An "abstract" is all that could be expected from Butler the great "abstractor."—Boston Post.

ALL RIGHT IN WATAUGA—RADICAL LOVE FOR THE NEGRO, &c.

BOONE, WATAUGA CO., April 3rd., '68.

Messrs. Editors:—Supposing that you desire information of a political character from all parts of what was once termed "the glorious old North State," permit me to say that our people, generally, are all right in sentiment, and will give a large majority against the new Constitution, "so-called." There seems to be a screw loose or a link broken in the Radical concern of this county. For instance, they have made two ineffectual attempts to get up a "nominating meeting in town." The first day, only three of them attended, one of whom was from another county. On last Friday, however, about a dozen of them came in, all belonging to the "League," but did not appear willing that their business should be made public, as the following interrogatories, propounded by a Conservative, who happened to be in town, will show:

Addressing an ex-Justice of the Peace, he said "Squire, what is the object of the meeting, to-day?" His answer was: "I wouldn't have come up here to-day, but I had business with Mr. W." He then asked one of the officials of the League, and he answered "just come up here with some friends." Our Conservative friend, being anxious for information, still persevered in repeating the question to several others, all of whom gave evasive answers—thus manifesting a desire to conceal the object of the meeting.

Again, on yesterday, two Radical candidates, all the way from Buncombe, came to address the people, but their notices, having failed to reach this place, there were none of the "dear creatures" on hand; so, I presume, they left, very much burdened with the addresses intended for our people.

I will also give you a specimen of Radical sympathy for the negro in this county. An old man of color, by the name of Charles Porter, recently came to this county from Davidson, well recommended by those who knew him, as honest and industrious, who procured, under a contract, house and land in a Radical neighborhood near the Tennessee line. His ought-to-be friends, however, soon informed him that he must leave the place. Not obeying immediately, they paid him a visit one night, threw stones at his house, fired pistols through the windows, and finally succeeded, by threats, in getting the old fellow away; and he is now residing on the lands of one whom they call an old "Reb."

It is further understood that they will not allow any Freedman to settle in that vicinity, either side of the State line. The arrangement is that if one should come in on the Tennessee side, North Carolinians are to expel him, and if in North Carolina, the Tennesseeans are to drive him off. We have but few negroes in this county, and they are well behaved and are fast learning who are their best friends. B. I.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN JOHNSTON.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Conservative party of Johnston county, held at Smithfield, Saturday, April 4th, Simon Godwin was called to the Chair, and P. M. Stuart and J. A. Adams were requested to act as Secretaries.

On motion of E. S. Parker, Esq., the Chair appointed a Committee, one from each Captain's District, and five for the county at large, on nominations, viz:

Gully's District—Capt J M Smith.
Swift Creek—H Finch.
Shelter—P Creech.
Meadow—R A Adams.
Bentonsville—E Stevens.
Smithfield—W H Avera.
Strickland's—Seth Woodall.
Boon Hill—Chas C Massey.
Pine Level—A M Noble.
Ingram's—E O Beasley.
Coonsboro'—Perry Godwin.
Wilder's—John Bryan.
Johnson's—J B Johnson.
For the County at large—Benj Godwin, S R Morgan, C F Jerold, W H Coats, Louis D Gully.

In the absence of the Committee, E. S. Parker was called on and responded in a most eloquent and electrifying speech, which was greeted with enthusiasm.

The Committee having returned recommended the following names, which were unanimously approved, viz: (For list of candidates, see notice in another column.)

Mr. W. H. Avera, being called for, accepted his nomination, and delivered a most stirring appeal:

Down with the infamous Constitution! Such a unanimity of feeling never was witnessed in Smithfield before, and all said "amen!" Down with your Constitution of Yankee manufacture, and give us the glorious Constitution of '76!

All the other candidates were called for and accepted their nominations in eloquent and patriotic speeches.

On motion, a committee of three for each precinct were appointed to superintend the election, to see that no frauds were practiced.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

From the Old North State.

FELLOW-CITIZENS OF THE 6TH DISTRICT.

It is well known to the whole country, North and South, that the Hon. Nathaniel Boyden was, during the entire war, one of the staunchest Union men in North Carolina, and no man in the State owns a higher moral character, and hath greater abilities as a Lawyer and Statesman. No man in the State can subserve the interests of all the people, white and black, in the Congress of the United States, better than Mr. Boyden. He is well and favorably known to the present Congress and people of the country, and will be a tower of strength in that body in behalf of all the people in the South.

I cheerfully withdraw my name from the canvass as an Independent Republican candidate for Congress in this District.

I invoke every Republican in the District to cast his vote for Hon. Nathaniel Boyden.

In the meantime, I respectfully call on every lover of good government, and all those who desire permanent peace and the development of North Carolina's every interest, to assist me in defeating the meanest political demagogue in all the country, W. W. Holden.

H. H. HELPER.

Salisbury, N. C., April 4th, 1868.

THE MASS MEETING.—Remember that the great Conservative mass meeting in this city takes place on Wednesday next, the 8th inst. We hope to witness such a gathering of the masses on that day as has not been seen here since the excited days of 1840.—Spread the intelligence far and wide.—Urge everybody to come and hear the great questions of the day discussed. If the people are only informed they will vote right. Salisbury Old North State.

Some person asked Charles James Fox what was the meaning of that passage in the Psalms, "He clothed himself with cursing as with a garment." "The meaning," said he, "I think, is clear enough; the man had a habit of swearing."

(LETTER FROM A LADY.)

ROCKINGHAM Co., N. C., April 3rd.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Having heard so much, of late, of Reconstruction, Radicals, Conservatives and Constitutions, I was induced to look into a copy of the Constitution, now before the people, which I picked up a few days since, and paid the penalty of all intermeddlers with things that belong not to their sphere, for I have had my curiosity, (which is said to be the besetting sin of our sex,) so much excited as to induce me to address you this note. In the 9th section of the 11th Article, I read, "that it shall be the duty of the Legislature, as soon as practicable, to devise means for the education of idiots and inebriates." The instructions of Sir Hildebrand Oubaldistone to his nephew had given me some idea, how a gentleman could be educated "to bear his six bottles quietly and comfortably, without brawling or babbling, and be neither sick nor sorry the next morning," but how, or in what, the poor idiots were to be educated, was more than I could guess. From what I had heard of the wisdom and sobriety of the Convention, I supposed they ordained things of which they were well advised, and which had been done in the "Athens of America" or thereabouts. I thought of an adjunct professorship to the department of the "Rev. Pilgrim." I thought of a bevy of "school-marms," freighted with patience and perseverance. I thought of that dance you described some weeks since, whether it might not have been a preliminary lecture, and whether Congress might not be requested to call another Convention to complete the course. In short, I wearied myself with conjectures. Now "do tell," Messrs. Editors, (for I suppose you have some inkling,) how the things is to be done, and relieve the curiosity of Special Correspondence of Baltimore Gazette.

THE IMPEACHMENT TRIAL—BUTLER, STEVENS & Co.—THE PRESIDENT'S COUNSEL.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The impeachment proceedings have been of no special interest to-day, the testimony having all been previously published. Butler attempted an entire disregard of all the rules of evidence, but was checked up by the President's counsel; whereupon he resorted to impertinence, but only became vulgar.—If in nothing else, the Managers have exhibited but little tact in allowing Butler to assume the leading part. His coarse manners, not less than his want of moral character, render himself positively offensive to a large portion of the Senate.

His management of the trial appears to give entire satisfaction to the small politicians, while Senators of the higher order are evidently astonished at the want of wisdom displayed by the House of Representatives in the selection of their Managers. Stevens is a galvanized corpse—brought into the Senate daily for scenic effect. Logan's only mark in the Senate will be where he expectorates on the fine carpet. Bingham has subsided like a pricked soap bubble. Boutwell and Wilson are treated by Butler as two overgrown school-boys made to read aloud their compositions, and Williams sits quietly behind Butler, apparently pleased at being allowed to remain in obscurity. Here you have a fairly drawn picture of the seven individuals who sit at the table on the left of the Chief Justice, and who, styling themselves Managers on the part of the House of Representatives, speak "in the name of all the people." Turn to the right of the Chief Justice and scan for a moment that other table and those who surround it. Do I hear you say those are the President's lawyers? Yes! they are the counsel for the respondent; and what a contrast! Here we have Stanbery, Curtis and Evarts—these are the men who conduct the defence. Groesbeck and Nelson are advisory in their positions, and are needed to do much of the drudgery of the defence.

THE PATRIOTS.—Things have come to this pass: that if it were proved to a certainty that a Radical Southern leader had stolen a sheep and bore it off on his back, or robbed a hen roost, picked a pocket, or sacrilegiously stolen a Bible from the altar of God, his character, standing and influence with his party would not be affected by it. It is not so certain that he would not thereby acquire more consideration and influence. Where the point of honor is outspoken, unblushing villainy, the most honored man is the vilest. In the olden times when men were aspirants to office, the test pronounced was, are they honest, are they capable, are they faithful to the Constitution? The time is at hand when this old test will be reversed. The question will be, are they dishonest, incapable and unfaithful to the Constitution? The more completely they satisfy these conditions the more imposing will be their claim to office. This universal demoralization is called by the high-sounding names of patriotism and loyalty, and, in sooth, if unmeasured and immeasurable corruption and ignorance constitute patriotism, then is the Radical party of the South a band of the most precious patriots, ignoramuses and "cut-purses of the Empire" that ever herded together to do villainy.—It has come to this: that a white man who stands by his race, speaks good English, tells the truth and acts honestly, is dealt with as an infamous character. He is disloyal and a fit subject for disfranchisement and confiscation.—Rich. Whig.

DOWN WITH THE CONSTITUTION—That is the watch-word of the white men of North Carolina.

NEGROES RULED OUT OF THE FREE SCHOOLS IN CONNECTICUT.—On Monday night last, at Hartford, a town meeting was called virtually to decide whether negroes have had a right to attend these schools. This call was signed by leading Radicals as well as Democrats. The meeting was held, and it was voted unanimously that on and after the 2d day of May next "it shall not be lawful" for colored children to attend any other schools than the designated negro school; and an effort to vote permission to colored children to attend white schools in some of the districts in the outskirts of the town was qualified so that such permission can be only by the "consent of such districts." And this, not because they are "ignorant or degraded," but solely because they are black. —N. Y. Herald.

THE REPUBLICAN MEETING.—On Thursday night, in accordance with posted notice, Mr. Cowles, the President of the negro Raleigh Convention, made his appearance at the Court House, we have been informed, and commenced to harangue the people assembled. At the conclusion of his remarks, Dr. I. W. Jones enquired if he would be permitted to reply? The right was conceded, and, we are told, Dr. Jones so thoroughly demolished the vapory Cowles, that hardly a greasy spot was left where he took his position. Cheer after cheer greeted the period of every sentence, which demonstrated that the President had been stirring a lion when he supposed he was only dealing with the asinine species of his own party.

Mr. Cowles' effort proved to be a most ridiculous failure; and the contempt he received was no less appropriate than richly earned.—Charlotte Bulletin.

ELOQUENT ADDRESS EXPECTED.—One of the most polished and effective pulpit orators in New York is Rev. Dr. Deems, pastor of the "Church of the Strangers." He is well known in this State and North Carolina, and his numerous friends will be pleased to learn that he will deliver an address at the anniversary of the Virginia Bible Society on the 7th inst.—Richmond Whig.

A Washington telegram announces that a reconciliation between Generals Grant and Butler has been effected through the instrumentality of their political friends, the chief actor in the affair being George Wilkes, of sporting celebrity.

The Lancaster Intelligencer, in the course of an article on President Johnson, says:

"He will go to posterity the last free President; those who follow him will be the slaves of Congress."

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE APPRENTICED TO NEGRO MASTERS?—That is one of the issues. The mongrel Convention refused to prohibit such a thing!

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

THE GREAT and paramount issue is: SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 25, 1868.
GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 45. }

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforesaid laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, Section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention;" and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration book of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during those hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places as may be in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several Registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

NEW ARRANGEMENT FOR THE SENTINEL,
Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.
William E. Pell, }
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
" "	six months,	2 00
Weekly "	three months,	1 00
" "	for one year,	2 00
" "	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
